Membership categories, benefits and minimum donations

Please note that Friends' membership is renewable annually. Couples count as single membership

- Benefactor (£500+)
Becoming a Benefactor entitles you to all the privileges of Gold Friends' membership, plus other special benefits, including informal meetings with performers after the concerts and with authors at the Literary Weekend, CDs and books signed by the performers or authors where available and inclusion of your name if you wish in press and promotional materials.
- Gold Friend (£230)
Includes priority booking with a choice of two complimentary tickets; complimentary copies of the souvenir festival programme; access to our VIP hospitality tent before each concert, during the interval and afterwards, when you may be able to meet the artists in an informal atmosphere.
- Silver Friend (£95)
Includes priority booking; access for two persons to the hospitality tent before and during the interval of each evening concert for which you hold tickets.
- Bronze Friend (£35)
Priority booking.
- Donation
I enclose a donation of £ towards the Proms and the charities supported by them.

All Friends are entitled to have their names printed in the souvenir programme. Please indicate how you would like to appear (e.g. John Smith, Mr & Mrs J R Smith, Ann & John Smith or vice versa, etc)

 I do not wish my name to appear in the programme.

Gift aid declaration

- I am a UK taxpayer and wish this and all future donations* to the Proms at St Jude's (SJP Charity Trust Ltd, Charity No 1094719) to be treated as gift aid donations. My UK tax bill this year will be more than this gift.
- I am not a UK taxpayer.
- Gift aid not applicable (charity cheque/voucher enclosed).

*NOTE: HMRC advise that £50 of the Benefactor or Gold Friend membership be treated as a ticket purchase.
