CHAIRMAN'S GREETING

Welcome to Our 30th Season!

Richard Clegg

It is a huge pleasure to welcome everyone back to Proms at St Jude's Music and Literary Festival. This is a very special year as we celebrate our 30th season with nine fabulous days of concerts, literary events and heritage walks, organised and run almost entirely by volunteers.

In 2021 we were among the first festivals to return to live music and literary events. Of course we made concessions for Covid, including socially distanced seating at concerts and making LitFest available online as well as live. Fortunately, our outdoor walks were able to continue as usual. Despite Covid, we retained our loyal sponsors and audience and, I'm delighted to say, welcomed a number of new faces. Most importantly, we raised a magnificent £60,000 to support our two charities, Toynbee Hall and the North London Hospice. This remarkable achievement in such challenging circumstances bears testimony to the wonderful support of our many sponsors, Friends, supporters and hard-working volunteers.

This, our 30th season, sees our programme return to normal – showcasing some of the best young musicians and welcoming back some of the world's most distinguished performers, authors and interviewers. Covid forced us to do some things differently and we're sticking with some of our innovations – LitFest will be live at The Henrietta Barnett School the weekend of 25-26 June and also available online from the weekend of 2-3 July.

So, thank you for your loyal support and we hope you have a wonderful time at our Festival. If you are a regular visitor we look forward to seeing you again; if you have never joined us, come and experience the magic of Proms at St Jude's.

Orchestra Nova

George Vass conductor

Benjamin Nabarro violin

Supported by the John S Cohen Foundation

George Vass

Benjamin Nabarro

George Vass conducts Orchestra Nova with soloist Benjamin Nabarro. The programme comprises Mendelssohn's Hebrides overture together with his popular Violin Concerto in E minor; Mahler's arrangement of the slow movement from Schubert's String Quartet No 14 in D minor Death and the Maiden and closes with Schubert's sunny Symphony No 3 in D.

BBC Radio 3 hails George Vass as 'the saviour of contemporary classical music'.

Musical Opinion praised Benjamin Nabarro's 'purity of style, elegance of phrasing and unsurpassed perfection of technique'. He tours the world as a violin soloist, director and conductor.

Orchestra Nova performs regularly at St John's, Smith Square, London, at St Albans Abbey and the Lichfield Festival.

This concert is in memory of our late Patron Dr David Cohen CBE, a longtime Proms supporter.

SUNDAY 26 JUNE

Darius Brubeck Quartet

Darius Brubeck piano • Dave O'Higgins saxophone • Matt Ridley bass • Wesley Gibbens drums

Supported by The Diana and Allan Morgenthau Charitable Trust

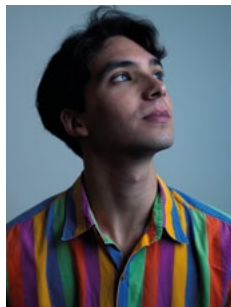

Darius Brubeck Quartet: Matt Ridley, Dave O'Higgins, Darius Brubeck and Wesley Gibbens

The Darius Brubeck Quartet has toured the world and released critically acclaimed CDs including Live in Poland, awarded five stars by Jazzwise. The concert includes Darius Brubeck compositions, South African jazz and ever-popular Dave Brubeck hits. The Quartet's acoustic sound is melodic, spontaneous, rhythmic and engaging.

'Darius showed without doubt that he is a highly accomplished pianist and composer – but Dave O'Higgins must take huge credit for his contribution (as should Ridley & Gibbens) – as the combination of Brubeck and O'Higgins is certainly among the best piano/sax partnerships in the UK.' Jazzwise

MONDAY 27 JUNE

Jonathan Ferrucci

12.00

Piano Recital

Jonathan Ferrucci piano

Supported by The Hampstead Garden Suburb Trust and by the Keyboard Charitable Trust

Jonathan Ferrucci has performed in the Wigmore and Barbican Halls, London, Carnegie's Weill Recital Hall, New York and the Fazioli Concert Hall, Italy. Jonathan is co-founder of Made in Music, a non-profit organisation, through which he brings together young musicians from all over the world. The programme includes music by Bach, Mozart and Brahms.

Howard Jacobson

Mother's Boy

In a book infused with trademark humour and bittersweet memories, the award-winning novelist, commentator and broadcaster explores the dichotomy of being both English and Jewish, of being simultaneously an insider and outsider. The Sunday Times called it "brilliantly funny" and an "outstanding example of the comic outsider angst he makes his own".

Howard has written 16 novels and five works of non-fiction. He won the 2010 Man Booker Prize for The Finkler Question.

He is in conversation with broadcast journalist Georgina Godwin, who regularly chairs events at UK festivals.

Tickets for guided walks must be booked in advance.

A reminder with final joining arrangements will be sent the day before each walk.

FRIDAY 1 JULY

10.30

Covent Garden – The Las Vegas of the Swinging (Seventeen) Sixties

By the 18th century Covent Garden offered a heady mix of taverns, brothels, playhouses and eateries where literary giants rubbed shoulders with notorious ‘Covent Garden ladies’. From the elegant Piazza to gas-lit alleyways, Ian Fagelson (top ten guide on Tripadvisor) leads us on a tour of the area’s most fascinating people and places, revealing their sometimes ‘seamy’ and ‘steamy’ history.

FRIDAY 1 JULY

14.00

The New Town on Our Doorstep

Brent Cross Town (BXT) promises to be as revolutionary as Hampstead Garden Suburb was 100 years ago. Kate Webster, Proms Heritage Walks Coordinator, examines the vision and plan for the town, and explores progress so far, including the award-winning playground and newly opened park. We also learn a little of the history of the Cricklewood area, including farming, a suffragette and early aircraft.

Meet outside BXT Visitor Pavilion, Claremont Way NW2 1AJ

SATURDAY 2 JULY

10.30

The Wyldees of Hampstead

Marilyn Greene, professional guide and former curator of Hampstead Museum, leads us around Hampstead’s once rural northern edge, including the hamlet of North End, with its famous residents, hostelry and 17th century Wyldees farmhouse. We learn how farmland augmented the Heath and provided the site for Hampstead Garden Suburb, returning to Golders Hill Park café via the enchanting Hill Garden.

Meet at Golders Hill Park café, North End Way NW3 7HD.

SUNDAY 3 JULY

10.30

Punks, Priests And Poseurs – The Hampstead Set

Julia Male, Blue Badge guide and local resident, takes us on an exploration of Hampstead in the footsteps of some of its famous (and infamous) residents, many of whom have been commemorated on English Heritage or Heath and Hampstead Society plaques.

NB: Part of the route involves steep steps.

Meet outside The Flask pub, Flask Walk NW3 1HE (close to Hampstead Underground Station and buses)

Friends and Supporters

For 30 years, Proms at St Jude's has been putting on a fantastic annual festival. We are a registered charity and, through the success of Proms, we have raised over £1m for good causes. We can only achieve this through the incredible support we receive from audience members, our Friends, sponsors, donors, advertisers and supporters.

Friends

By becoming a Friend you become an invaluable supporter of Proms. You can also benefit from advantages such as: priority booking; free access to our Friends and Sponsors hospitality area; a chance to meet the performers; and an invitation to the launch reception. You can also buy gift vouchers, which can be used towards buying Friend memberships or tickets. Full details of the individual memberships and gift vouchers are available on our website.

MEMBERSHIP	COST	PRIORITY BOOKING OPEN FROM
Gold	£250	Monday 28 March 2022
Silver	£140	Monday 4 April 2022
Bronze	£40	Monday 11 April 2022

Thanks to all our Friends, sponsors, donors, advertisers, volunteers and supporters who make the Festival possible.
